

Public

International students with level in French A1 to B2

Objectif

You will focus on the skills necessary for a good communication in French, oral and written comprehension, oral and written production as well as grammar and vocabulary items related to French culture.

Modalités

- 3 weeks session: from 5 to 23 september 2022*
- Registration deadline: 20 July 2022
- 60 hours training
- The student must have an e-mail, a good Internet connection and either a computer/laptop or a tablet with a microphone and a webcam.
- A certificate of attendance will be forwarded at the end of the training
- The videoconference courses will take place in the morning (French time), 2h30 of lessons in real time per day from Monday to Friday.

Tuition fees: 885 €

For ILCF Ucly partner rates, please contact us.

*Opening subject to a sufficient number of participants (from 8 to 12 students with same level in French language)

Contenu

Our learning and training path:

- 39 hours teaching in virtual classes (TEAMS videoconference);
- 20 hours of learning path in autonomy : exercises, documentary research, individual or sub-group project;
- 1 hour of tutoring (2 sessions of 30 minutes each);
- Evaluation related to continuous assessment, attendance and student participation;
- Course materials composed of authentic tools : texts, audios, videos;

Les +

- Qualified teachers
- An innovative pedagogical approach
- A educational follow-up and personalized assessment of the level and needs
- A teaching focused on oral communication to enable fluency and fluidity in French
- A learning regular application thanks to an implementation of projects
- An education center, labeled

Contact us

by mail : ilcf@univ-catholyon.fr
by phone : +33(0)4 72 32 50 53
www.ilcf.net